Rules and Regulations

- Exhibitors are responsible for maintaining and leaving their assigned areas free of trash, and in otherwise good condition.
- 10x10 space (unless requested for special reason) is 12.5% of total sales or $250 weekend fee (per space) (nonrefundable) for May 5 - 6, 2023. Percentage sales are due before the applicant leaves the rodeo site each night or weekend fee will be due before set up.
- Do not break down early. Doing so will hurt your chances of participating in future events. If you must leave early because of a special circumstance, please contact a WFFAACR staff member before breaking down your booth. We appreciate your cooperation.
- Vehicles will have limited access to exhibit area, therefore exhibitors should be prepared to carry materials and equipment a short distance. Vehicles will be allowed to unload at exhibit space but should be removed immediately.
- Registration will begin on Friday and Saturday from 12:00 p.m. – 4:30 p.m.
- This is a family event and all vendors must be family friendly. The Director of the Event shall have the sole discretion to require the removal of any item, which he or she determines violates the Rodeo's rules.
- Vendors are responsible for the collection and payment of all sales tax. Wetumpka's sales tax rate is 9%. For more information on filing, call (334) 242-1490 or go to www.revenue.alabama.gov.
- Vendor spaces will be assigned upon registration on event date.
- Vehicles will be allowed on-site for after the event has concluded only and during setup time hours ONLY.
- In the event of inclement weather, refunds will not be made.
